

THREE NEW ADDITIONS FOR 2010

ENEMY OF AVERAGE Chestnut 2003 15.3HH

FUSAICHI PEGASUS (USA)	MR PROSPECTOR ANGEL FEVER
PATRONA (USA)	LOMOND GLADIOLUS

Enemy Of Average is a magnificent individual, selling for $800,000 as a yearling. He won the listed SAJC Walter Brown Stakes at his first start as a two year old, however his racing career was jeopardised due to a back injury. He is from a lovely family, being a half brother to Champion Sprinter and Australian Champion first season sire in Exceed And Excel. He has covered 130 mares in each of the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

ZARIZ Brown 1997 16.1HH

MUKKADAMAH (IRE)	STORM BIRD TASH
DIVINE DASH	TOLOMEO (USA) ROGUE'S DELIGHT

Zariz is proving to be a very consistent sire with his progeny winning over distances from 1000 metres to 2400 metres. He has been represented by nine winners for the month of April. His best performers to date include the Gr 1 winner Lazer Sharp as well as Zarvista, Zaazorro, Monterey Road, Rikkizar etc.

Zariz was a very smart racehorse, winning seven races which included two at Group 2 level and two at Listed level.

MARWINA Bay 1991 16 HH

MARSCAY	BISCAY HEART OF MARKET
ORWHINA	VAIN ORANA MIS

Marwina hails from the famous Star Kingdom line and has been an instant Stud success siring over $10 Million in earnings and close on 300 winners. He is by the Champion sire Marscay and his dam Orwhina has produced 11 winners including Gr 1 winner Jetball.

Marwina was a very talented racehorse winning the Listed AJC Breeders Plate and two Gr 3 races as well as a gallant second in the Gr 1 Caulfield Guineas.
