

SPRING IS IN THE AIR

We are eagerly anticipating the first foal here at Koorungal, the first mares have been moved into the foaling paddocks, and the mares are also lining up in the pre-foaling paddocks. We have been fortunate to get some good rain through the winter and the property is looking magnificent. Greenery surrounds us and the horses cannot keep on top of the pastures, which is a sign of a good spring to come. The oats and rye are already higher than our knees, the recently sown lucerne has sprouted and the perennial pastures have grown well. More rain is always welcome, especially now the feeling of spring is in the air with some lovely warm, sunny days.
