October 2009

---

The breeding season is once again in full swing with over 60 foals born already, and another 40 or so are yet to arrive. Our stallions are enjoying the season and are delivering excellent fertility results with many mares already returning positive pregnancy tests. Alert's yearlings are growing into very impressive types with wonderful conformation and temperaments. This year his second crop of foals are equally impressive, again with many foals in the mould of their sire.

Tim, are you ready to catch?

Yep, got it!

Patroness and her Bureaucracy colt, resting!

Patroness foaled standing up and the whole team was summonsed to give her a helping hand! Her foal was delivered safe and well. As always, the horses keep the team on our toes, surprising us with what they get up to, and how they like to do things their own way!
